

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
November 2008

PA SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT WILL ASSIST THE CITY OF LOWELL IN SECURING A MANAGEMENT CONTRACT FOR THE EDWARD A. LELACHEUR STADIUM

Lowell, Massachusetts – November 2008 – The Lowell Arena & Civic Stadium Commission has engaged PA Sports & Entertainment to provide professional consulting services to assist in the development, negotiation and execution of a long-term lease for LeLacheur Stadium. The Stadium is the current home of the Lowell Spinners, the single “A” affiliate of the Boston Red Sox.

“It is our goal to provide the Lowell Arena & Civic Stadium Commission as well as the City of Lowell with a new lease that will continue to maximize returns in their investment.” said Costa.

PA Sports & Entertainment offers innovative and strategic consulting services for public assembly facilities including arenas, convention centers, stadiums, theaters and ice facilities. Co-founders James R. Hathaway and Steven F. Costa have over 35 combined years of industry experience in the financial, operational and administrative management of sports facilities.
